50. Memoriams

In loving memory of our sister and mother, Annie Laura Mann, who passed away 26 years ago, January 14, 1956.
Little did we know when dawned that morning, what sorrow the day would bring, when God called you Laura to come and live with him
nothing is the same since you have gone away.
We miss your loving smile and tender care.
That lasted not just a while, but every day of every year.
Loving memories never die as days roll on and days go by.
Deep in our hearts those memories are kept.
For the one we loved and will never forget.
Sadly missed by Daughter, Sister and Brother
50/2-18-1tp

In memory of our father Elmer Mann who passed away 8 years ago February 11, 1974.
Sad memories come this time of year,
when we lost the one we loved so dear.
The grief though faded is still so deep.
The legend you left us, we're trying to keep.
Time can heal, and ease all pains, but in our hearts, the hurt remains,
all the pain and grief is over.
Every restless, tossing passed, you are now at peace forever, safely, home in Heaven at last.
Sadly missed by children Laura, Emma, Mary and William
50/2-18-1tp

In loving memory of our father and grandfather, Charles Booker who passed away 5 years ago, February 14, 1978.
Sad memories come this time of year
when we lost the one we love so dear.
Deep in our hearts, you will always stay and be remembered everyday.
Sadly missed by children and grandchildren
50/2-18-1tc

50. Memoriams

In loving memory of Stephanie Jean Torrence who departed this life three years ago, February 21, 1979.
It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
A million times we missed you
a million times we will cry
if our love could have saved you
you would have never died.
To some you are forgotten
to others, a part of the past but to us who loved and lost you your memory will always last.
There is a bond death cannot sever
love and remembrance live forever.
Sadly missed by her parents: David and Becky Torrence; sister: Sheri Torrence; her brothers: Burt and Gene Torrence

Promise Land

"A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven." John 3:27

A very inspiring service was rendered by the Rev. Albert Davis and the Chancellor Choir on Sunday. A large number of visitors, members and friends attended.

We were very happy to see Deacon William Hancock and brother Willie Harvey at Sunday's service. We are glad that they are both doing better.

Let us pray for the sick and needy and remember them in our thoughts and deeds.

Mt. Pleasant

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him (John 13:16)

The snow came. It was really beautiful Saturday morning. Such a wintery scenery. Thanks to God it went as fast as it came.

The William Singers were at Mt. Pleasant. Everyone enjoyed them. It had been quite some time since they had been up this way.

Miss Hattie Jones has been admitted to Lynchburg General Hospital for observation. She had a stay of two weeks in Southside Community Hospital in Farmville, Va. She has our prayers. She is one of our oldest members.

Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Annie Jones and family, in the loss of her son, Thurman.

The community was sorry to hear of the fire and smoke damage of our pastor and wife's apartment in Lynchburg.

Don't forget the Royal Supreme at Chestnut Grove the third Sunday, Feb. 21 at 3 p.m., benefit of the Appomattox Assembly. Come out and check this organization out. Meeting time every second Thursday night at 7:30, at Galilee Baptist Church, Appomattox, Va.

There will be services at Mt. Pleasant this coming fourth Sunday at 11 a.m. Come out and worship with us.

BUDDY HACKETT, who was paralyzed from the waist down as the result of an injury sustained while cutting wood on Aug. 25, 1980, does not let his handicap keep him from doing what he likes best: hunting with his brothers. He says he is looking forward to hunting season next year. Above he is shown with an eight-point buck he got this year. He and his wife Doris have two beautiful children, Jody Lee, age 2, and Jamie Leigh, age 1.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

On December 30, 1981, Central Virginia Electric Cooperative (hereinafter "the Cooperative") filed with the State Corporation Commission an application requesting (a) an increase in the rates charged for electric service, (b) an increase in certain existing fees and approval of certain new fees, (c) approval of certain changes in its Terms and Conditions for Electric Service and (d) approval of a schedule for determing the rate to be paid by the Cooperative for power purchased from consumers operating small power production facilities. The Cooperative states that its application is intended to increase its annual revenues by $1,307,365.86, of which $1,229,602.78 is attributable to requested changes in rates for electric service and $77,763.08 is attributable to fees to cover related costs.

In support of its proposals, the Cooperative has filed narrative testimony and financial data for the 12 months ended August 31, 1981.

The Commission has suspended the effective date of the proposed changes and has scheduled a public hearing for 10:00 a.m. on April 23, 1982 in the Commission's Courtroom on the 12th Floor of the Jefferson Building (formerly the Blanton Building), Bank and Governor Streets, Richmond, Virginia for the purpose of receiving evidence relevant to the application.

Any interested party may review the application, together with the financial data and testimony offered in support of the application, during regular business hours at the Commission's Document Control Center, Floor B1, Jefferson Building, or at any office of the Cooperative where customer bills may be paid.

Any person wishing to make a statement in his own behalf, either for or against the application, need only appear in the Commission's Courtroom at 9:45 a.m. on the morning of the hearing. Such persons need not prefile any material. If any person wishes to comment in writing on the application, the comments must be filed with the Commission on or before April 23, 1982. Any correspondence directed to the Commission should be addressed to its Clerk, State Corporation Commission, Document Control Center, P.O. Box 2118, Richmond, Virginia 23216.

On or before February 19, 1982 copies of any additional testimony or exhibits to be offered on by the Cooperative will be available for public inspection at the Commission's Document Control Center and at all offices of the Cooperative where customer bills may be paid.

On or before April 12, 1982, a Commission Staff report will be available for public review at the Commission's Document Control Center.

On or before April 12, 1982, all persons intending to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses or otherwise participate in this proceeding as protestants, in accordance with Rule 4:6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, shall file an original and fifteen copies of (1) a Protest and (2) their prepared testimony and exhibits, directing same to the Commission's Clerk and serving a copy on Evans B. Brasfield, Esquire, Hunton & Williams, P.O. Box 1535, Richmond, Virginia 23212.
